

Saltaire Arts Trail 2017

This weekend is the Saltaire Arts Trail. There are lots of exciting happening in Saltaire and Robert's Park so if you are around this weekend it will be worth a visit.

Our year one children have some of their Saltaire art work in the United Reformed Church in the centre of the village. Their work is part of an exhibition of original art work in postcard size. Here are photographs of some of their finished miniature works of art.
