

Read & Question

Write out a series of questions on cards to hide around the house. These could include:

What can you tell me about the main character?

How did he/she feel and how did this change?

What happened throughout the story?

Read the story together and then once it has been read they can go and collect a question and write the answer to the question in full sentences.

Talk about the answers together.