Vision Statement

We nurture an aspirational family of hard-working, respectful individuals who work collaboratively to have a lifelong love of learning.

“Life in all its fullness” (John 10:10)

Our vision is to ensure that our school family are happy and fulfilled in a creative learning environment. This is flexible and caters to individual needs while developing a life-long love for learning through which all members can flourish. We nurture an aspirational family of hard-working, respectful individuals who work collaboratively.

The Equality Act 2010

The Equality Act 2010 has replaced all existing equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, Disability Discrimination Act and Sex Discrimination Act. The Equality Act 2010 provides a single, consolidated source of discrimination law, covering all the types of discrimination that are unlawful.

The equality duty has two main parts: the ‘general’ equality duty’ and ‘specific duties’.

The general equality duty sets out the equality matters that schools need to consider when making decisions that affect pupils or staff with different protected characteristics. This duty has three elements. In carrying out their functions public bodies are required to have ‘due regard’ when making decisions and developing policies, to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

Wycliffe CE Primary School fully understands the principle of the Equality Act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity. The Governors and Staff at Wycliffe CE Primary School are committed to providing all pupils with a curriculum which provides equality of opportunity and freedom from discrimination.

We are committed to overcoming sexist, racist and classist attitudes with an approach which seeks to raise consciousness and develop positive attitudes. A protected characteristic under the act covers the groups listed below:

- Age;
- Disability;
- Race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin;
- Sex (including transgender);
- Gender reassignment;
- Maternity and pregnancy;
- Religion and belief;
- Sexual orientation; and
- Marriage and civil partnership (for employees).

Having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity is defined further in the Equality Act 2010 as having due regard to the need to:

1. Remove or minimise disadvantages
2. Take steps to meet different needs

3. Encourage participation when it is disproportionately low.

Schools are required to publish information showing how they comply with the new equality duty and to set equality objectives. The school will update the published information at least annually and equality objectives at least once every four years.

In order to meet the general equality duty, there are two specific duties that we are required to carry out. These are:

- To publish information to demonstrate how we are complying with the equality duty. (Updated annually) We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child.
- To prepare and publish one or more specific and measurable equality objective. (Updated annually) To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives.

This will include the following functions:

- Admissions;
- Attendance;
- Attainment;
- Exclusions;
- Prejudice related incidents.

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above however; where we find evidence that other functions have a significant impact on any particular group, we will include work in this area. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Wycliffe CE Primary School is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fair less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. If incidents still occur, we address them immediately and report to the governing body.

Objectives

Detailed below are the Wycliffe CE Primary School current set of overriding equality objectives.

Objective Group	Objective
Leadership and Management	The vision for education is applied equally to all children at the school. The staff and governing body reflects the diversity of the Wycliffe CE Primary School community. Accurate collection, analysis and publication of equality data including the recording of prejudice-related incidents.
Quality of Education	No pupils (or their families) are disadvantaged academically, socially or emotionally. All staff are mindful of the academic and social needs of all children, especially potentially vulnerable children. Under-achievement is identified at regular pupil progress meetings and appropriate intervention is applied. All pupils are able to participate in a range of extracurricular opportunities. All pupils are assessed, monitored and tracked through internal tracking systems.

Personal Development (Fostering good relations)	Curriculum effectively develops children's understanding and appreciation of diversity. The curriculum celebrates diversity and promotes respect for all the different protected characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010.
Behaviour and Attitudes (Fostering good relations)	Children respect one another. Children feel safe and valued. Children, staff and parents know that misconduct and gross misconduct will be challenged. A respectful and positive culture Bullying is dealt with effectively.

Wycliffe CE Primary School will make reasonable adjustments to meet the needs of disabled pupils and implement an accessibility plan aimed at:

- (a) increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the curriculum;
- (b) improving the physical environment of schools to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided;
- (c) improving the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.

The Wycliffe CE Primary School leaders accept and welcome their responsibility to have due regard in decision-making and actions to the possible implications for pupils with particular protected characteristics. They will consider equality implications before and at the time that they develop policy and take decisions.

Responsibility

We believe that promoting equality is the whole of Wycliffe CE Primary School's responsibility.

Wycliffe CE Primary School does this by measures that include:

- for pupils - implementation of policies on equal opportunities (including race and gender equality, special needs, behaviour and anti-bullying);
- for staff - implementation of policies on equal opportunities, recruitment and selection, pay and anti-harassment policy;
- PSHE, relationships education, RE and other elements within the curriculum that promote friendship and understanding about cultures and lifestyles;
- employing specialist staff where required to support pupils with special needs or disabilities, and implementing the Wycliffe CE Primary School disability access plan;
- monitoring of welfare, with intervention and support where required;
- taking steps to meet the particular needs of pupils or staff that have a particular characteristic.
